

Kansas Table Salt

The Carey kind and IT IS PURE.
GOOD SIDE OATS for seed. Only a few, but they are good.

Canvas Goods, ALL KINDS, Collapsible Buckets, Wagon Covers, Bed Sheets and Cots, Tents and Tarpaulins. BIRCHES BEST.

CASTLE GATE COAL, Payson and Mount Pleasant Flour and Mill Stuff.

MCKUNE FORWARDING CO.

Uncle Sam's Ultimatum on Men's Modes

The dire need of cloth conservation is emphasized by the government's action against "needless adornments." Uncle Sam frowns on coat cuffs, belts and necks and on all freaks and frills of fashion.

At this time when distinctive style depends almost entirely on simplicity of design our hand tailored clothes have a stronger appeal than ever. Grace of line and stylish cut rather than extreme designing have always been the cardinal points of our tailored style.

Our cloths are all wool, with a double guarantee—the mills' and ours. Select your tailored to measure tags from our line. You'll select quality and draw style with it. Twenty-five to forty dollars.

F. L. BUCKIO
Ninth Street, Just Off Main,
PRICE, UTAH

SHORT STORIES OF THE WEEK

EMORY COUNTY MAN PASSES.

William D. Stokus died at his home at Cleveland last Friday at the age of about 55 years. He was an old timer at several of the coal camps of Carbon county and a most excellent man. For a considerable time he had been ranching in Emory county and was quite prosperous. He is survived by a widow and several grown children. Funeral services were held for the dead man last Sunday, interment being at Cleveland.

BROTHER OF MISS FAUX.

Nathan Faux, aged 22 years and a student at the University of Utah, succumbed at his home in Moroni one day last week by hanging himself in a barn on his father's farm. Despondency brought about by a nervous breakdown following his studies at the university is thought to have led the young man to take his own life. He was a senior in the medical school. Deceased was a brother of Miss Goldie Faux, the latter a teacher year before this in the Carbon county schools and well known locally. The Salt Lake City newspapers gave the name as Faux instead of Faux. Funeral services were held at Moroni last Friday afternoon.

THEY MUST PAY UP.

Pursuant to the provisions of the law of Utah governing the payment of taxes by corporations the delinquent ones will be given until Monday, April 1, 1918, to pay the state the taxes due as it was announced last Wednesday by the secretary of state. Such delinquent corporations are originally notified by the secretary of state of their delinquency. If the payment of their taxes is not forthcoming, their names are then advertised as delinquents. They are then given until the time specified by law to present their checks, and their failure to do so causes their names to be scratched from the corporation book and the subsequent revocation of their license to do business in Utah.

FRED E. WOODS GOING.

Fred E. Woods, Jr., during the week enlisted with Uncle Sam's army and is to leave Price next Sunday morning with the twelve men who were recently called with the two hundred and forty-seven being furnished by Utah at this time. Young Woods has but recently returned to this city from Idaho, where he has been teaching music in one of the educational institutions of that state. He is a son of Judge and Mrs. F. E. Woods, and was but a short time ago married to Miss Edna Callaway of this city. He is a musician of much ability and it is believed will before a great while be in one of the musical divisions of the service. Under the rules of the local draft board Woods

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS.

George A. Nixon this week took an option from Mrs. Olive Millburn on the lot of fifty feet frontage just west of and adjoining the Elk theater on Main street and the sixty-two and a half feet just north of the Millburn residence on North Eighth street, the consideration for the former being seventy-five dollars a front foot and the latter thirty dollars a front foot, the deal involving about fifty-five hundred dollars. Deeds are expected to pass about the first of the month. There are others interested with Nixon. It may be that a new playhouse or a garage or both will be built on the properties. Improvements are yet to be determined upon.

MANY USELESS PACKAGES.

At the request of the national government of Washington, D. C., post-office officials have issued an appeal to citizens to discontinue sending unnecessary parcel post packages to soldiers in France. Reports show that hundreds of tons of parcel post matter sent "over there" are absolutely useless and unnecessary and a heavy burden to the transport service. Most of the articles sent to France can be purchased in the canteens of the American expeditionary forces for less money than is required to send them by parcel post. Reports refer to an inspection of a boatload of mail that recently arrived at a French port. It

PROCLAMATION

The week from April 1st to April 8th is hereby designated "Clean Up Week." All residents of Price are respectfully urged to use as much of this week as possible in cleaning and beautifying their surroundings. Clean up particularly all dead weeds, leaves, ashes and all of the old winter rubbish.

The new "daylight saving" law will just be ushered in. At least use this one hour gained each day and put it in "cleaning up." Use more if necessary, but by April 8th let us have a clean city.

GEORGE A. WOOTTON, Mayor.

HOMESICK FOR OLD TOWN

W. Glenn Harmon Doing Search Work
At the Nation's Capital.

W. Glenn Harmon, who left Price a few weeks ago for Washington, D. C., writes The Sun that he got there safely and on time and has now buckled down to work in the navy, war and state building as a record searcher. "My office," he says, "is within a stone's throw of the White House. President Wilson is one of the few I haven't seen yet, but I'm keeping my eyes peeled and hope to be rewarded soon. The city is full of soldiers and there is everything to remind one of war. French, Italian and British soldiers in their varicolored uniforms are to be seen every day and with our own make a grand showing. The White House is guarded constantly by police and at night soldier pickets are added. One has to have a pass to be admitted to any government building where work is in progress. Oh, I tell you, people here are realizing that this is war. The population has almost doubled—and as is always the case—prices have doubled, too."

Washington is the highest priced place in the United States. One can live about half as cheaply at home as here. But one can see so much here that the difference is partly made up for. However, I have enjoyed myself immensely since leaving home and have been seeing things that one may well consider oneself lucky to see. And yet at times I get so full of longing for home scenes and home faces that I can hardly hold myself. It is just one month tonight since I left home, and were it not for the fact that there is such a dearth of help here, and what little I can do is so small compared to what those boys are doing over there, I should mighty willingly call my visit here closed and pull up stakes for the biggest little city.

Harmon's address is 52 D street, N. W., Washington, D. C., and he adds that he will be glad to bear from his friends at Price and elsewhere locally.

HAS HONORABLE DISCHARGE

John E. Beddoes Gets Back Home
From Camp Lewis, Wash.

John E. Beddoes, a Scotland young man who went to Camp Lewis, Wash., after enlisting at Price November 2d, last, is back from that confinement with an honorable discharge from the service. After being in camp a short time Beddoes lost three fingers of his left hand in an accident while cutting wood and this disqualified him for service.

His discharge papers are signed by Col. P. W. Davidson, commanding at Camp Lewis, and state that the young man's character is excellent and his service faithful, but reinstatement is not recommended. The discharge is dated March 18, 1918.

The young man visited in Price yesterday, where he lived a short time before going to war.

Material decrease in the price of rice is the prospect by April 1st, according to announcement of the food administration. The cause for advance in rice price is attributed by the administration to the fact that most rice mills have been running to full capacity in order to supply the demand for a million bags for America's fighting forces and those of America's associates in the war. As a result, the normal supply for home consumption was temporarily reduced.

Make one load of manure equal five by using a John Deere spreader. Follow up with a John Deere plow and Van Brunt drill and a good harvest is assured. Con. Wagon and Machine company, Price, Utah.—Advt.

Red, white and blue shirts are the latest thing in men's furnishings. Price Trading company is showing a line of them that promise to become popular.

To discover whether coffee is pure, sprinkle a few grains on the surface of a tumblerful of water. If pure they will float, but if adulterated they will sink to the bottom.

required only one small French car to transport the letters and a train of nineteen cars to move the cargo of parcel post.

MORE MONEY COMING.

E. C. Lee, while in town this week from his Nine Mile ranch, told local people that he recently had word from the state road commission that ten thousand dollars more is now available for improving the Price to Moxon highway. He will be doubtless hard to get to France, but Uncle Sam thinks him of more value getting recruits.—Moab Times, 22d.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miles of Roseville returned Monday from their trip through Arizona and Southern Utah. They say they have traveled twenty-five hundred miles since leaving home in their car. The trip was an enjoyable one and they saw a lot of fine country. They left their car at Payson as it was impossible to come over Soldier Summit with a car. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Sutherland of Shorts and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Widburg of Salt Lake City accompanied them here, coming in by way of Price. They report the Price road in fine condition. Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Widburg left here Tuesday for their homes.—Moab Free Press, 22d.

The one delivery a day system as adopted by the stores of Eureka, Logan, Brigham and other Utah towns seems to be very satisfactory to all concerned, according to information given out by the merchants. Salt Lake City merchants recently adopted the same system. Where customers demand the immediate delivery of small articles they are required to pay extra for such service. Price undoubtedly soon will fall in line.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mrs. Charles H. Lewis was a Provo visitor during the week.

Mrs. H. W. Millburn and mother, Mrs. Elsie Branch, are home from their trip to California.

Mrs. Helen Ballinger, of Grand Junction, Colo., is here this week visiting with relatives and friends.

Sis. Lee Keimey has returned to her home at Midland after a short visit in Price with Mrs. Charlie Leger.

Mrs. E. Halverson of Castle Gate visited this week and last with her mother, Mrs. D. J. Bennett, at Price.

Star Glimmer of Price Commission company had business in Salt Lake City four or five days this week and last.

Will Tuford, Jr., has quit the Consolidated Wagon and Machine company to go to Idaho and take up a ranch.

William McDermid of Blawatwa was doing business at the county seat last Saturday. He registered at the Tavern.

Fred J. Davis of Cotton, hotel-keep and sheepowner, was in Price last Sunday. He will shear at Mounds this spring.

Preston Nutt and W. A. Lowry left Price yesterday for the range around Woodside and the eastern portion of Carbon county.

Mayor George A. Wootton went out to the Uintah Basin country last Monday to look after his farm and live stock interests there.

Mrs. Theodore Asher has returned to her home at Three Forks, Mont., after a visit in Price with her sisters, Mrs. C. S. Harris and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe.

Dr. A. W. Dowd of Sunnyside was in the city Tuesday evening on professional business and went from here to Kentworth for a short visit with his brother, Dr. H. E. Dowd.

G. W. Spurr of the Bayview was in Salt Lake City this week on business connected with his oil interests in the Uintah Basin country and also east of Price in the Cat Canyon section.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Salmon, James Stokes and John C. Wilson, all of Coalville, were in Price Sunday and Monday. They went from here to Cleveland to attend the funeral of late William D. Stokes.

Mrs. R. G. Clark of the Black Hawk Hotel at Blawatwa is back from a recent visit to her grandson who is with the artillery at Camp Kearny, Calif. She was gone three weeks and reports having had a most splendid trip.

Mrs. T. L. (Len) McCarty returned early in the week after a visit at Salt Lake City. As McCarty's business will keep him at the capital a large portion of the time they have decided to locate there and will move to Eureka in the near future.—Eureka Reporter, 22d.

J. E. Holmes, chief clerk for Utah Fuel company at Sunnyside, was in Price Tuesday evening for a few hours. He told The Sun that the date for opening the new hall there is yet undetermined. They are waiting for some of the fixtures that have been held up in shipment by the railroads.

Austin Merryweather, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Merryweather, is home on a furlough from Camp from Camp Kearny, Calif. He expects to leave Price in the near future. Merryweather has enjoyed his training at the camp and is in fine physical condition. The Merryweathers are from Scotfield, where the young man was born and practically reared.

Oscar W. Coleman, recruiting officer from Price, was a visitor in Nellis last week. Coleman is a bright young man, having spent several years railroad, and is very prominent in labor circles, having been a member of the "stingers" for years, but is now spending his energy getting the boys to make the Kaiser sing the "Star Spangled Banner." Coleman has tried hard to get to France, but Uncle Sam thinks him of more value getting recruits.—Moab Times, 22d.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miles of Roseville returned Monday from their trip through Arizona and Southern Utah. They say they have traveled twenty-five hundred miles since leaving home in their car. The trip was an enjoyable one and they saw a lot of fine country. They left their car at Payson as it was impossible to come over Soldier Summit with a car. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Sutherland of Shorts and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Widburg of Salt Lake City accompanied them here, coming in by way of Price. They report the Price road in fine condition. Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Widburg left here Tuesday for their homes.—Moab Free Press, 22d.

The one delivery a day system as adopted by the stores of Eureka, Logan, Brigham and other Utah towns seems to be very satisfactory to all concerned, according to information given out by the merchants. Salt Lake City merchants recently adopted the same system. Where customers demand the immediate delivery of small articles they are required to pay extra for such service. Price undoubtedly soon will fall in line.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY
A FAVORITE FOR COLDS.

J. L. Easley, Mason, Uta., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says: "During the past fifteen years it has been my sister's favorite medicine for colds on the lungs. I myself have taken it a number of times when suffering with a cold and it always relieved me promptly."—Advt.

"GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE"

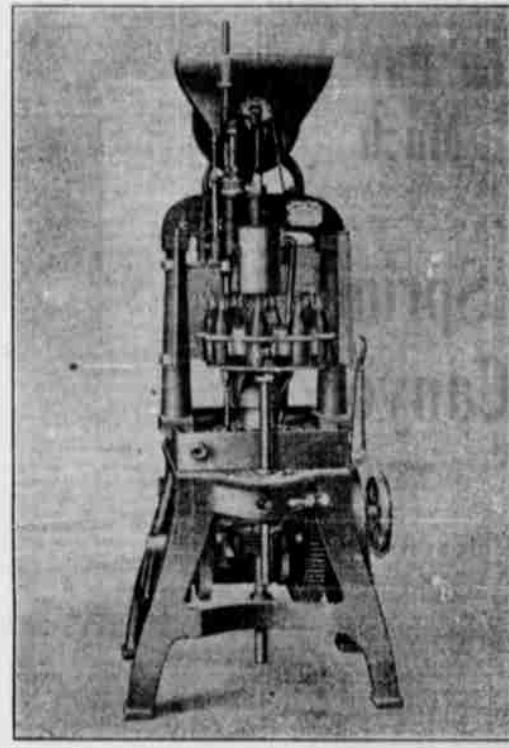

If you propose to do business we advise doing it in a business way. Successful men these days no longer pay bills in currency. They deposit their cash in banking institutions and settle all their accounts by checks which are indisputable evidence of payment. "Go thou and do likewise."

The government advises you to save. We pay 4 percent interest on savings deposits, compounded semi-annually. Many are starting savings accounts with this bank, why not you?

Price Commercial & Savings Bank

Price, Utah

HOME MANUFACTURING CONCERN DESERVING OF LOCAL PATRONAGE

Right up to date in everything that pertains to its manufacturing business, Price Bottling Works of this city has just installed at an expense of more than two thousand dollars a Junior Automatic Bottling. The capacity of this most modern of devices is twenty-four half-pints, sixteen pints and nine quarts every minute. In the handling of soda waters and like bottled goods, the human hand never comes in contact with the neck of the bottle or with contents. Everything is absolutely automatic and free from contamination of any kind.

In addition to having the very latest machinery and appliances about the place in every department, Price Bottling Works owns its own building, one of the best of its kind between Salt Lake City and Denver, Colo. The proprietors of this business are progressive, loyal to the city and in every way worthy of the support of those handling this line of merchandise. An invitation is extended all to inspect the plant at any and all times.

Price Bottling Works specializes in all manner of soft drinks with delivery anywhere in the county or city. Prices are below those from outside points. The institution is one that brings money to the city that is spent here for labor, taxes and improvement.

"CLEAN UP WEEK" ORDERED BY MAYOR

Mayor George A. Wootton has designated by proclamation Monday, April 1st, to Monday, April 8th, "Clean Up Week" in Price. The proclamation is published elsewhere in this impression of The Sun. Committees are named to see that the work is done. By districts they are:

District No. 1—W. F. Olson, Rev. H. T. Zeidman and Mrs. M. G. Cleveland.

District No. 2—J. H. Miller, Mrs. H. W. Millburn and Carl H. Marquisen.

District No. 3—L. E. Whitmore, J. W. Hammond and Mrs. C. H. Akerman.

The city's dumping ground is at the east end of K street and folks are expected to use it as suggested by the city authorities.

Streets and alleys and public properties are to be cleaned after by the city. Private premises must be cared for by owners, tenants or agents.

Some heavy new automobile coats of soft wool have huge collars of length.

CLOSED ON SUNDAYS WILSON'S

On account of the new ruling of the City Council this store will be closed all day on Sundays, but to accommodate out-of-town customers we will hold our store open week day evenings.

After your day's work is done you may come to Price and do your grocery trading. Be sure to buy your Sunday dinner not later than Saturday night.

O. H. WILSON SELLING CO.